PART-A: CODE OF CONDUCT

4.0 Compliance Officer

- 4.1 The Company Secretary shall be the Compliance Officer for the purpose of the Code.
- 4.2 The Compliance Officer shall be responsible for implementing the policies and procedures set forth by the Board. He will also monitor adherence to the rules for the preservation of "Price Sensitive Information", approving of trading plan(s), intimating the trading plans to stock exchanges, monitoring of trades and the implementation of the Code (directly or through respective Whole-time Director/Unit/SBU/Division/Department heads, as decided by the Company Management)
- 4.3 The Compliance Officer shall report on insider trading to the Board of Directors of the Company and in particular, shall provide reports to the Chairman of the Audit Committee, if any, or to the Chairman of the Board of Directors at such frequency as may be stipulated by the Board of Directors.

- 4.4 The Compliance Officer shall maintain a record of the Designated Persons, their shareholding and disclosure made in pursuant this Code for a minimum period of five years.
- 4.5 The compliance officer shall confidentially maintain a list of such securities as a "restricted list" which shall be used as the basis for approving or rejecting applications for preclearance of trades.

Preservation of "Price Sensitive Information"

5.0 Preservation of "Price Sensitive Information"

- 5.1 No Designated Person shall either on his own behalf or on behalf of any other person, trade in securities of the Company that are listed or proposed to be listed on the basis of any unpublished price sensitive information which has not yet been officially communicated.
- 5.2 Designated Persons shall maintain the confidentiality of all price sensitive information. The Designated Persons shall not communicate, provide, or allow access to any unpublished price sensitive information relating to the Company or securities listed or proposed to be listed, to any person including other Insiders except where such communication is in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.
- 5.3 No designated person shall procure from or cause the communication by any insider of unpublished price sensitive information relating to the Company or securities listed or proposed to be listed, except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations. Following practices should be followed in this regard:
 - 5.3.1 Need to Know

Price Sensitive Information is to be handled on a "need to know" basis, i.e., Price Sensitive Information should be disclosed only to those within the Company who need the information to discharge their official duty and whose possession of such information will not give rise to a conflict of interest or appearance of misuse of the information.
 - 5.3.2 Limited access to confidential Information

Files containing confidential information shall be kept secure. Computer files must have adequate security of login and password etc.
- 5.4 Un-published price sensitive information may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction which would:
 - 5.4.1 Entail an obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations where the Board of Directors of the company is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the company; or

- 5.4.2 Not attract the obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations but where the board of directors of the company is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the company and the information that constitute unpublished price sensitive information is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the board of directors may determine.
- 5.4.3 However, the Board of Directors shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the limited purpose and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the Company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

6.0 Prevention of misuse of "Price Sensitive Information"

All Designated Persons shall be subject to trading restrictions as enumerated herein below:-

6.1 Trading window

- 6.1.1 The Designated Persons shall conduct all their dealings in the securities of the Company only in a valid Trading Window and shall not deal in any transaction involving the purchase or sale of the Company's securities when the trading window is closed as referred in para 6.1.2 herein below:
- 6.1.2 The trading window shall be. Inter alia, closed for the period as indicated in the definition of "closed period" at the time of:
- a. Declaration of Financial results (quarterly, half-yearly and annually)
 - b. Declaration/recommendation of dividends (interim and final)
 - c. Any change in capital structure.
 - d. Any major expansion plans or execution of new projects.
 - e. Amalgamation, mergers, de-merger, delisting and takeover.
 - f. Disposal of whole or substantially whole of the undertaking.
 - g. Any significant changes in policies, plans or operations of the Company.
 - h. Any change in Key Managerial Personnel
 - i. Any Material events in accordance with listing agreement.
- 6.1.3 The trading window shall also be applicable to any person having contractual or fiduciary relation with the company, such as auditors, accountancy firms, law firms, analysts, consultants etc., assisting or advising the company.

In case of ESOPs, exercise of option may be allowed in the period when the trading window is closed. However, sale of shares allotted on exercise of ESOPs shall not be allowed when trading window is closed.

7.0 Trading Plan

An insider shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan for dealing in securities of the Company and present it to the Compliance Officer for approval in the Form-E annexed hereto as Annexure-1 and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.

7.1 Trading Plan shall:

- a. not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the insider earlier than six months from the public disclosure of the plan;
- b. not entail trading for the period between the twentieth trading day prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced by the issuer of the securities and the second trading day after the disclosure of such financial results;
- c. entail trading for a period of not less than twelve months;
- d. not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;
- e. set out either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at, or dates on which such trades shall be effected; and
- f. not entail trading in securities for market abuse.

7.2 The Compliance Officer shall consider the Trading Plan made as above and shall approve it forthwith. However, he shall be entitled to take express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan as per provisions of the Regulations.

7.3 The Trading Plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the Insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan.

However, the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced, if at the time of formulation of the plan, the Insider is in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information and the said information has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation. The commencement of the Plan shall be deferred until such unpublished price sensitive information becomes generally available information. Further, the Insider shall also not be allowed to deal in securities of the Company, if the date of trading in securities of the Company, as per the approved Trading Plan, coincides with the date of closure of Trading Window announced by the Compliance Officer.

7.4 Upon approval of the trading plan, the compliance officer shall notify the plan to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed.

8 Pre-clearance of trades

8.1 All designated Persons, who intend to deal in the securities of the Company when the trading window is opened and if the value of the proposed trades is above 2,500 securities or Rs. 10 Lakhs (market value) or 1% of total share capital of the Company, whichever is less, should pre-clear the transaction. However, no designated person shall be entitled to apply for pre-clearance of any proposed trade if such designated person is in possession of unpublished price sensitive information even if the trading window is not closed and hence he shall not be allowed to trade. The pre-clearance procedure shall be as hereunder:

- (i) An application may be made in the Form-F annexed hereto as Annexure-2 to the Compliance officer indicating the estimated number of securities that the Specified Employee intends to deal in, the details as to the depository with which he has a security account, the details as to the securities in such depository mode and such other details as may be required by any rule made by the company in this behalf.
- (ii) An undertaking as per Annexure-3 shall be executed in favour of the Company by designated persons.
- (iii) All designated Persons shall execute their order in respect of securities of the Company within one week after the approval of pre-clearance is given. The Specified Person shall file within 2 (two) days of the execution of the deal, the details of such deal with the Compliance Officer in the Form-G annexed hereto as Annexure-4. In case the transaction is not undertaken, a report to that effect shall be filed.
- (iv) If the order is not executed within seven days after the approval is given, the designated persons must pre-clear the transaction again.
- (v) All designated Persons who buy or sell any number of securities of the Company shall not enter into an opposite transaction i.e. sell or buy any number of securities and shall not take position in derivative transaction during the next six months following the prior transaction. The compliance officer is empowered to grant relaxation from strict application of such restriction for reasons to be recorded in writing provided that such relaxation does not violate these regulations.
- (vi) In case of any contra trade be executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by SEBI under the Act.
- (vii) All the Designated Persons shall hold their investments in securities for a minimum period of 30 days in order to be considered as being held for investment purposes. The holding period shall also apply to subscription in the primary market (IPOs). In the case of IPOs, the holding period would commence when the securities are actually allotted.

- (viii) In case the sale of securities is necessitated by personal emergency, the holding period may be waived by the Compliance Officer after recording in writing his/her reasons in this regard. The Designated Persons may make an application for such waiver in the Form-H annexed hereto as Annexure-5. However, no such sale will be permitted when the Trading window is closed.

9.0 Other Restrictions

- 9.1 The disclosures to be made by any person under this Code shall include those relating to trading by such person's immediate relatives, and by any other person for whom such person takes trading decisions.
- 9.2 The disclosures of trading in securities shall also include trading in derivatives of securities and the traded value of the derivatives shall be taken into account for purposes of this Code.
- 9.3 The disclosures made under this Code shall be maintained by the Compliance officer for a period of five years.
